Our library company

The Library Company of Burlington is a vital part of our communities, Burlington City and Township. It is a comfortable place to spend time, a vital resource for all kinds of information, a mirror on the past and a window into the future. To assure that this venerable institution continues to be responsive to the needs of all our citizens, we invite your support through donations, large and small. Join us in this exciting opportunity to help the Library Company of Burlington to continue to be an important and vital part of our communities.
