FRIENDS’ MISSION
The Friends of The Library Company of Burlington are an independent, nonprofit 501(c)(3), tax-exempt, community-based organization dedicated to supporting and promoting The Library Company of Burlington through programs, advocacy and financial support.

FRIENDS’ HISTORY
Since 2003, the Friends have partnered with one of our most treasured institutions, chartered in 1758 by King George II. Our mission to support the Library Company is carried out by Friends and library patrons who care about the City of Burlington and Burlington Township. The Friends are grateful for and depend on the volunteer efforts of leaders who inspire concerned citizens to work effectively with the dedicated library staff in support of the Library Company.
