RESTRICTED ACTIVITIES

- The library is a smoke free building. Smoking is not permitted in any area of the library property including rest rooms and front entrance area.
  - All cell phones must be silence upon entering the library.
  - Food and beverages are permitted only in the Cafe areas only. No food may be brought into the library. However, water in closed containers ONLY IS permitted at the tables areas. No water is permitted by the computers.

Food and beverages are permitted only in the Cafe areas only. No food may be brought into the library. However, water in closed containers ONLY IS permitted at the tables areas. No water is permitted by the computers.

- All disruptive behavior, which includes but is not limited to the following is prohibited:
  - Talking loudly, noisy conduct, rude conduct, running or other disruptive behavior
  - Playing of audio equipment without the use of earphones
  - Fighting or making threats
  - Intoxication
  - Sexual behavior
  - Verbal or written abuse, including obscene language or racial slurs

- Other prohibited activities include:
  - Use or distribution of controlled substance.
  - Loitering on library premises, i.e., sleeping, wandering aimlessly, or lingering by the computers or entrance.
  - Bringing in animals except those assisting an individual with a disability.
  - Mutilating, damaging or defacing any library material or property.
  - Tampering with computer hardware or software.
  - Improper removal or theft of library property or personal property of others.
  - Solicitation, distribution or sale of materials without prior approval.
  - Bathing, washing of clothes or hair, and other misuse of the rest rooms

*Library customers who doze off for a short period while working may be left alone. The ban on sleeping pertains to habitual sleepers and those who are noisy or sprawled out on the furniture.

- Bare feet are not permitted and shirts must be worn.
- Library materials that have not been charged out may not be taken into the rest rooms.

Staff will ask customers failing to comply with these rules to modify their behavior. The police will be called to deal with any serious disorderly conduct or criminal behavior. Individuals violating standards of acceptable behavior risk immediate removal from the library and possible loss of all library privileges.

08/11/11 skv